Trilateral Table

- * All Canadians have a right to free and peaceful assembly under the Charter – at the same time, hateful symbols and rhetoric have no place on Parliament Hill or anywhere in Canada.
- * Since the start of this event we have seen the brandishing of hateful symbols, the desecration of sacred spaces like the National War Memorial, and reports of threats and harassment against Ottawa residents and businesses.
- * Let us be clear – this type of behaviour is unacceptable and unCanadian.
- * In response to the City of Ottawa's recent state of emergency declaration, our government has proposed convening a trilateral table with our municipal and provincial counterparts.
- * This table builds on the consistent conversation and collaboration that has taken place since the start of this event, ensuring even stronger communication between all partners as we seek to support the work of the Ottawa Police Service as the police of jurisdiction.
- * We have had several positive conversations with the city under the auspices of this table over the last three days.
- * We continue to engage with all levels of government on future meetings.

If pressed – Provincial participation

- * We remain in a fluid and highly evolving situation – as such, it is essential that all levels of government engage closely to ensure the safety and well-being of all Ottawa residents.
- * Discussions between our government and Ottawa over the last 3 days have been productive as we work to ensure law enforcement has the support it needs.
- * We continue to encourage the province to join us for these important conversations as we chart a path forward to end the unlawful occupation in Ottawa.
